PERSONAL . . .

"WAR IS HELL"...

as he described the ever-present scourge of humanity. And certainly, with few exceptions, mankind has never had any serious doubt that war is indeed a crucible that the world would be better off without.

Neville Chamberlain, British prime minister earlier this century, stated: "In war, whichever side may call itself the victor, there are no winners, but all are losers."

Perhaps a number of our readers have had, as I have, the opportunity to visit the headquarters of the United Nations organization in New York City. It is plain that the young guides are deeply War is at best barbarism... It is only those who have neither fired a shot nor heard the shrieks and groans of the wounded who cry aloud for blood, more vengeance, more desolation. War is hell.

> -William Tecumseh Sherman (1820-1891)

